2. Council reserves the right not to process applications, and/or to provide services, wholly or in part.
3. Council reserves the right to review and/or amend these terms and conditions, its holdings, Interment Sites and property within its cemeteries at any time without notice to any person.
4. To comply with the Act and Part 8 of the Public Health Regulation 2012 (NSW), Council is required to enter the details provided to it in a register available to the public for inspection.

APPLICATION AND FEES AND CHARGES

5. Any Fee required to accompany an application is for the relevant application processing only and does not include additional fees that may be incurred at the time of need for Interment or for additional or alternate applications.
6. A Fee associated with a Perpetual Interment Right relates to the application and granting of the right only and not to any other costs associated with an Interment.
7. Where an applicant enters into a payment plan in relation to an Interim Certificate of Perpetual Interment, and requires the Site prior to the payment plan being completed, any outstanding amount remaining will be required to complete full payment at the time of need of Interment.
8. There may be additional charges that may be incurred at the time of need of Interment including but not limited to Site digging Fees, memorial permit Fees, Funeral Director Fees, other administrative charges. In addition, there may be ongoing maintenance Fees.

PERPETUAL INTERMENT RIGHTS

9. Council may accept and process any application concerning a Perpetual Interment Right from any person/s declaring they are authorised to do so (upon provision of written or documentary evidence and payment of the associated fee).
10. No more than two Perpetual Interment Rights in a cemetery can be held for any individual person.
11. A Perpetual Interment Right issued to two or more applicants is held jointly. On the death of a joint holder of a Perpetual Interment Right, the Perpetual Interment Right passes to the remaining Perpetual Interment Right Holder. The remaining Perpetual Interment Right Holder must advise Council who will update the Register accordingly.
12. Council may repurchase unused Interment Rights from the Interment Right Holder/s in accordance with the Act.
13. An Interment Right can form part of a personal estate and be bequeathed, if not used an unused Perpetual Interment Right may be transferred on application to Council and payment of the associated fee. Transfer of the Perpetual Interment Right is only operative when Council issues a new Certificate of Perpetual Interment Right and updates the Register. An unused Perpetual Interment Right can be transferred pursuant to the will or intestacy of a deceased Perpetual Interment Right Holder on application to Council and payment of the associated fee. Transfer of the Perpetual Interment Right is only operative when Council issues a new Certificate of Perpetual Interment Right and updates the Register.
14. Council reserves the right to refuse to grant or transfer a Perpetual Interment Right in accordance with the Act.
15. A Perpetual Interment Right Holder may apply to Council to cancel an unused Perpetual Interment Right.
16. Council may repurchase unused Perpetual Interment Rights from the Perpetual Interment Right Holder in accordance with the Act.
17. A Perpetual Interment Right must be used by the Perpetual Interment Right Holder within 50 years of the date of issue of the Certificate of Perpetual Interment Right. If it is not used within this period, Council can revoke the Perpetual Interment Right, in accordance with the Act.
18. Applications to amend a Perpetual Interment Right will be considered on application to Council and payment of the associated Fee. Amendment of the Perpetual Interment Right is only operative when Council issues a new Certificate of Perpetual Interment Right and updates the Register.

CERTIFICATE OF PERPETUAL INTERMENT RIGHT

19. A Perpetual Interment Right is not effective until Council issues a Certificate of Perpetual Interment Right and updates the Register.
20. An Interim Certificate of Perpetual Interment Right may be issued by Council to indicate that a Perpetual Interment Right Holder has entered into a payment agreement with Council, and once full payment of the application fee has been received,

SECTION 6 – TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Council will issue a Certificate of Perpetual Interment Right and update the Register.

21. At its discretion, Council reserves the right to rescind allocation of a site if the full fee is not paid within 12 months from the date of application, or at the time of Interment if earlier, in accordance with the Interim Certificate of Perpetual Interment Right. If the Interment Site is next to a family grave, the family will be contacted about whether or not they still want the site. If Council is unable to make contact to the relevant people, Council will move forward in revoking the Interment Site. Interment Site prices apply at the time that payment is made.
22. A Certificate of Perpetual Interment Right will be issued to the Perpetual Interment Right Holder as proof of Perpetual Interment Right and must be presented when booking an Interment service.
23. A replacement Certificate of Perpetual Interment Right may be issued if the original is lost, stolen or destroyed, on application to Council and payment of any associated fee.

INTERMENT IN GENERAL CEMETERY

24. The preferred Funeral Director of the Perpetual Interment Right Holder is responsible for coordinating the Interment and funeral arrangements.
